About us

Adeva Partners is an expert-led firm that provides specialist credit and risk management training for bankers, investors and regulators globally. We design and deliver training that meets both the learning needs of the target audience and achieves management's objectives.

We offer the best financial and technical training in the market. This is reflected throughout - in the products we build, the training we deliver, the people in our team and ultimately in the service we give to our clients. Clients turn to us to solve training challenges and deliver effective training at all levels within an organization, from new hires to board level management.
